The Conference

Good & Service Tax (GST) come in to the effect on 1st July, 2017, GST will turn India into one common market, leading to greater ease of doing business and resulting in big saving across all sectors some companies will gain more as GST rate is lower than prevailing tax rate, they pay before the inception of GST. GST will eliminate multiple levies; it will also allow deeper penetration of digital services. GST is system of taxation where there is single tax in the economy for goods as well as services.
