Grievances related policy documents

At our college composition of internal exam Committee undertakes the Appeals or grievances of the students. The principal of the college is the authority to redress the grievances about subject change, hall ticket updating, result correction or any other related matters. The exam committee takes decisions on the grievance and communicates with the University.

The College is committed to continuous improvement based upon a solving the problems of the students. In which students feel comfortable in submitting grievances and confident that their issues will be addressed fairly, as promptly and accurately as possible.

Many grievances can be resolved directly, either by approaching the student or group of students whose actions have given rise to the grievance, or by approaching an authorized staff member for assistance.

Some direct resolution strategies involve:

- a. identifying issue/s;
- b. giving more information and/or applying policy and procedure;
- c. providing an explanation;
- d. suggesting a solution;
- e. expressing empathy and understanding; and/or
- f. giving an apology

Formal Grievances

All formal complaints managed in accordance with the relevant rules and policies.

All records managed in compliance with the University Policy. That is all formal written student related grievances forwarded to the University's to solve. In this point documents are supported related to students' grievance exam. e.g. correction of mistakes related to changes in the hall tickets contents, Correction in the result, correction of personal data of student etc.
